

Josh Holland

Vice President

As the Vice President for ComforceHealth, Josh has responsibility for new client acquisition, client services and delivery. Josh joined the ComforceHealth team with a proven track record of building high performing sales and recruitment teams, leveraging his 10+ years of industry experience. He and his team are responsible for unlocking new opportunities for partnerships by driving up-sell and cross-sell initiatives and facilitating collaboration to develop impactful solutions. Driven by passion, Josh enjoys “geeking out” over helping formulate solutions with clients, never shying away from an opportunity to incorporate humor and establishing deeper connections with those he serves.

Josh and his family live in Tampa, FL. During his free time, he can usually be found exploring the outdoors enjoying boating, fishing and camping.
