

Paritosh Sharma

Executive Vice President and Managing Director, Europe

Paritosh Sharma is the Executive Vice President and Managing Director of Innova’s European business—a strategic market. In this role, Paritosh is responsible for driving client success in the region. He spearheads Innova’s vision for the business in Europe and drives the appropriate strategy and execution to achieve it.

Paritosh has a unique blend of rich experience in consulting, IT services, and technology. He is a specialist in driving market modernization and transformation and has led many strategic programs for clients to become digital and data focused market leaders. He is immensely passionate about “Client Success” and is a highly collaborative and innovative business leader. He has a track record of building and leading high impact and diverse teams.

Paritosh has over two decades of experience in the IT & ITeS industry and has worked with leading brands, including General Electric, American Express, IBM, and Infosys. Most recently, he served as Senior Vice President at Mphasis, where he led two business units in the European region. Prior to that, he led Wipro’s Digital Operations and Platforms (DOP) business unit in Europe. He was on the DOP business executive team as well as the European executive team.

Paritosh is an advocate of diversity and inclusion, a keen coach & mentor to developing leaders, and a champion of change. He is a frequent participant and speaker at industry forums. He enjoys adventure sports and lives with his family in London.
